

Berkhamsted Half-Marathon, 7 March 2004.

This is a beautiful and scenic, but very hilly, course in the Chilterns. The day started wet and cold, but improved as we ran.

Mel had a fine run for 5th (2nd M40). Andy Lyne ran well for 11th. I knocked two minutes off my 2002 time for 36th (1st M55), and Moto closed out our team in 70th. That gave Barnet $5+11+36+70=122$ – just one place behind Tring ($8+13+26+74=121$), running on their home turf. Let's get our revenge next year – and try for a bigger turnout!
